

Are you the person I'm looking for?

I am a 11 year old girl who lives in Findlay, OH

I need a provider to help me with:

getting me out of the house and active in the community. I would benefit from activities such as volunteering at the humane society. I need to work on developing other interests and am open to trying new things.

Some of the things that are important to me are:

Its important to respect my boundaries. It may take me a while to talk and open up to you. I like animals, art, being outside, music, and movies.

Some of the things that are important for me are:

My medications, speech, and physical therapy, feeling supported, being heard, socializing, and developing my interests.

Who?

A personable, understanding, and patient provider that is willing to work with me on developing my interests and getting out in the community.

What?

Paid for by FCSS funds.

How?

I would always need someone with me while in the community. I will need transportation to and from activities.

When?

ASAP. Up to 2 hours at a time, up to 4 hours per week. Schedule will be agreed upon availability. The funds can be spread out throughout the year.

Interested?
